Table of contents

- Motivation for two national initiatives
- Open Educational Resources: the Digital Thematic Universities initiative
- MOOCs: the FUN-MOOC initiative

Motivation

- Transformation of all HE institutions (territorial & thematic equity)
- Mutualisation of the development, sharing of the realisations, cost efficiency
- Collaborative, multi-profile & multidisciplinary work
- Quality of the production
- Global communication & dissemination

From OERs to MOOCs: a temporal perspective

2004

2011

2014

UNT: mutualized & collaborative production of OERs

UNT: from OERs to services

FUN-MOOC & UNT: from services to online education

Step 1: Mutualized & collaborative production of OERs

Creation of 7 (+1) Digital Thematic Universities (UNTs)

- non profit disciplinary networks of HE institutions
- production, labelling, indexing, diffusion of e-contents
- call for projects each year
- free access, creative commons
- fundings: HEi membership dues, public fundings

Impact

- 34 000 OERs, all pedagogically, technically and scientifically labelled, creative commons licensed
- all in SupLOMfr indexed
- more than 9 000 000 visits in 2015
- a common search engine <http://www.sup-numerique.gouv.fr>

Step 2: Refundation of UNTs

- From resources to services (guides, open tools)
- Inclusive vision : multilingual, handicap
- Development of usages. Link with curricula
- National and international dissemination
- Granularity of learning objects. Auto-assessment

Impact

- scenarii for Heis
- an authoring tool (SCENARI chain, open source, with tutorials)
- guide for authors/producers, ethical and legal issues,

Les UNT au service des établissements : des exemples de scénario concrets

La Lutte contre l'échec

La formation continue

La problématique des étudiants salariés

Le flux croissant d'étudiants en situation de handicap

L'appui à la mobilité internationale entrante et sortante

La préservation des connaissances et compétences disciplinaires rares

Step 3: FUN-MOOC, the national platform for MOOCs

Aims:

- Support of the development of curricula taking full advantage of digital and making them more accessible to a wider audience
- Provide HEIs with mutualised services & resources to support the digital transformation of formations
- Promote the French offer in terms of formations & digital resources

Impact

- an administrative structure of "Groupement d'Intérêt Public" (GIP) co-funded by its members and French Ministry
- an EdX based platform
- more than 50 partners in France and outside
- 1 million registrations to 150 MOOCs

Conclusions

UNTs and MOOCs

- MOOCs based on OERs from UNTs
- new audio productions for MOOCs, totally or partially funded by UNTs: new OERs
- but the digital transformation of HE is still at the premises ...
